The News.

Hon. C. C. WASHBURNE, the present efficient, and popular Representative of the Third Congressional District, was re-nominated by the Republican Convention, at Prairie du Chien yesterday. Mr. WASHBURNE was greeted in the Convention, after his nomination, with tumultuous cheering, and resolutions were adopted endorsing his course in Congress, and also applauding the course of Gov. RANDALL.

There was a stormy time at the Democratic Congressional Convention, at Racine, yesterday, as was expected. Finally BERIAH BROWN was nominated, receiving 21 out of 36 votes cast.—The proceedings of the Convention will be found in our telegraph column.

We have full details, this morning, of the splendid celebration in New York city, yesterday, in honor of the successful laying of the Atlantic Telegraph.

FRANK P. BLAIR, Jr., of St. Louis, has given notice of his intention to contest the seat of his opponent, BARRETT, who owed his success to fraudulent votes.

The gold discoveries in Western Kansas are vouched for by a correspondent of the St. Louis Republican.

With larger receipts, wheat was firmer in our market yesterday, and choice milling Spring a trifle higher. We have no market report from New York this morning. The Chicago market, yesterday, was slightly lower.

Early frosts are said to have damaged the corn in the western part of the State.

Yesterday morning, the 1st of September, was as fine as any mid summer's morning we have had this year, but towards noon heavy clouds made their appearance, and everybody expected rain, but no rain came.

Re-Nomination of Mr. Washburne.

The Republican Congressional Convention for the Second District, met at Prairie du Chien, yesterday, and by a very emphatic vote renominated the present faithful Representative, CADWALLADER C. WASHBURNE, for re-election in November next. We need not say that we regard the nomination of Mr. WASHBURNE as, in all respects, an unexceptionable one, and that we confidently look to see it ratified by the People of the Second District, by a decisive majority. Mr. WASHBURNE, like Mr. POTTER, has proved his fitness for the post, and his fidelity to Republican principles. He has been diligent in the discharge of his duties; right on the record, every time; mindful of the interests of the West, and true to Freedom. Few men in the present Congress stand better with friends and opponents, than Mr. WASHBURNE. His personal integrity, his business talents, his sound practical sense, and his genial manners, have all conspired to make him a favorite at Washington.—At home, too, he enjoys a wide spread and well-deserved popularity, and we do not doubt that the constituency whom he has served so well will give him, in November, a substantial and satisfactory token of their confidence and regard. In the next Congress, as in the two last, we may hope to see the three brothers WASHBURNE standing and striving together in the cause of Free dom, Humanity and Right.

The Republican Convention at Racine.

The Republican Congressional Convention, which met at Racine, on Tuesday last, was one of the best ever held in this State. All parts of the District were fully represented; the proceedings were entirely harmonious, and the spirit which pervaded the Convention was all that could be wished. Mr. POTTER was re-nominated by acclamation and without even the formality of a ballot. His speech to the Convention was frank, able and eloquent, and made an excellent impression. Emphatic resolutions were adopted re-affirming the principles of the Republican Party, and pledging the cordial and united support of the Republicans of this District to Mr. POTTER. With him for our standard-bearer, victory is again within our grasp. Let us not lose the prize for want of proper effort.

The True Issue—Republicans and Democrats Read!

The Washington Union has issued another Pronunciamento in regard to the forthcoming elections in Illinois and other Northern and Western States. We call attention to the following extracts:

"The true issue, is not only in Illinois, but in every State in the Union, in the administration of Mr. Buchanan, as the representative of the Democratic party, against all opposition, whether as open enemies or false friends."

"A question of incalculable magnitude, and especially with Southern men, arises as to the effect upon the Democratic party of the overthrow of Mr. Buchanan's Administration. It may be effected in some measure by casting down its friends in the Northern States. There is not an anti-Lecompton Democrat from the North who was in the last Congress that has any sympathy with the present Administration. In some localities they are openly opposing the regular nominee of the Democratic party; in others they are insidiously attempting to stab the organization by claiming the vesture of the people's candidate; and in others they are trying to throw upon them the responsibility of electing Black Republicans instead of those who claim to be Democrats, but who are more than acceptable to the New York Tribune, et id omne genus."

Here is the official edict. The party are expected to "hear and obey." Are the Freemen of Wisconsin prepared to submit to this Lecompton Decree?

JUDGE DOOLITTE at OSHKOSH.—Senator DOOLITTLE expects to be at Oshkosh, during the sitting of the Republican Congressional Convention, next week; and our friends there will do well to give notice of his coming, and of his willingness to address the People on the prominent topics of the day.

EARLY FROST IN WESTERN WISCONSIN.—The Richland County Observer of the 31st, says:—"There was some frost in this section on Saturday night last, which injured vines, buckwheat, &c., on low grounds." A gentleman who arrived here from Grant County yesterday, tells us that on Monday, he noticed a number of fields of corn, on the low grounds, badly cut by the frost.

THE MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF MRS. BERNHAM.—The New York Tribune of the 28th, says, from evidence obtained thus far with reference to the mysterious disappearance of Mrs. BERNHAM, wife of Capt. BERNHAM, of the U. S army, there remains but little doubt that she was murdered on Staten Island, but by whom, nd in what locality, is not known.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

First Congressional District.

The Republican Convention from the first Congressional District in this State, met at Racine on Tuesday, August 31. The Convention Assembled at the Court House at 1 o'clock P. M., and organized temporarily by the appointment of W. P. LYON, of Racine, as Chairman, and Judge FIELD, of Waukesha, as Secretary.

The following Delegates were in attendance.

Milwaukee County—Byron Paine, B. Domschke, Wm. Brown, T. B Kemp, J. A. Swain, John Plankinton, Gregor Menzel, Wm. Mclms, A. B. Mower, Reuben Strong, Nathan Howes, Peter Yates, J. H. Tweedy, S. M. Booth.

Waukesha County.—Samuel Randle, Dr. Sperry, Martin Field, John O. Harrison, E. Enos, E. A. Church, W. D. Bacon, C. C. Olin.

Walworth County—J. T. Wentworth, T. N. Hill, J. W. Lawton, L. A. Hutchins, N. S. Murphy, A. Rublee, Dr. Blanchard, F. Leland.

Kenosha County.—Charles Durkee, Alson Folch, S. R. McClellan, H. H. Tarbel.

Racine County.—Gilbert Knapp, W. P. Lyon, S. S. Van Vliet, James Gibb, E. Birchard, J. T. Ellis, W. S. Everett, S Moulton.

Committees to select officers and report resolutions were appointed, and the former reported the following as the permanent officers of the Convention:

President—JOHN H. TWEEDY.

Vice Presidents—Capt. Knapp, Samuel Randle, Gregor Menzel, J. T Wentworth.

Secretaries—S. M. Booth, B. Domschke, Frank Leland.

The report was unanimously adopted.

On motion of W. D. BACON, of Waukesha, JOHN F. POTTER, of Walworth County, was unanimously nominated as the Republican candidate for the First Congressional District.—This motion was carried by acclamation.

The following resolutions were adopted with entire unanimity:

Resolved, That the course of the National Administration, in its efforts to make Kansas a slave State, by denying to the people of Kansas a free voice in forming a State Constitution, by offering them a bribe in the English Lecompton Bill to come in as a Slave State with their present numbers, while refusing them admission as a Free State, until they attain a population of 100,000; by sanctioning the outrages perpetrated upon their persons, franchises and liberties; and by rewarding with official honors and emoluments those who have been most conspicuous in committing these outrages, has forfeited the confidence of all liberty-loving men; and that it is the imperative duty of all who love liberty and wish to maintain it, to forego all personal feelings and interests, and unite in a vigorous effort for its overthrow.

Resolved, That the so-called democratic party, by its support of the Dred Scott decision denying the rights of citizenship and the protection of the laws to the colored people of this country, both bond and free, and affirming the right of the slaveholders to carry their slaves into all our territories, thus establishing slavery therein against the wishes of the people, has made slavery national, and become the party of despotism; and it remains only for the Supreme Court to take one more step—for which the party is fast preparing—to affirm the decision of one of its inferior Courts, that slaveholders have a right to take their slaves into the free States and hold them there, to establish slavery in all the States of the Union.

Resolved, That the extravagance of the national Administration in squandering the public monies, by which it is incapacitated from aiding, if it was disposed to aid—which it is not—in the work of River and Harbor Improvements, render it unworthy the support of the people, and we can never expect protection to life and property on our western waters, from the General Government, as long as it remains in the hands of the self-styled Democracy.

Resolved, That we re-affirm the principles of the Philadelphia Platform, as the landmarks of the Republican party of this district, and that it is the first duty of the Republicans of this district to elect a Representative who is in favor of these principles, and opposed to the principles and policy of the national Administration.

Resolved, That we have full confidence in the ability, integrity, and faithfulness of Hon. John F. Potter, our present member of Congress, that we heartily approve of his Congressional acts, that we commend him to the suffrages of the people for a re election as worthy of all honor, and that we pledge him a united and vigorous support.

The Convention was addressed by the President, JOHN H. TWEEDY, and by the nominee, JOHN F. POTTER, Esq. Their remarks were loudly applauded.

The following District Committee was appointed for the ensuing two years:

B. Domschke, Milwaukee.
Henry Lines, Kenosha.
Wyman Spooner, Walworth.
Wm. E. Wording, Racine.
W. D Bacon, Waukesha.

On motion, the Convention then, after an entirely harmonious and satisfactory session, adjourned sine die.

RE-NOMINATION OF JOHN F. POTTER FOR CONGRESS.—In accordance with the general expectation, Hon. John F. Potter, of Walworth, was re-nominated by the Republican Convention, by acclamation. We think that it will be conceded by men of all parties that John F. Potter's votes have been in accordance with the sentiments of his constituents, and like the Washburne brothers he was always in the Hall when the roll was called, and cast a vote that the Freemen of our State will never be ashamed to bear in mind.—Judge Potter is also a representative of an integrity so incorruptible that money cannot influence him. We may peculiarly say, at the present era of corruption in public and private life, "An honest man is truly the greatest work of God."—Wisconsin of yesterday.

THE GREAT GOLD NUGGET OF AUSTRALIA.—The Australian correspondent of the London Times, gives the following account of the last great gold nugget found in that country:

"The great event of the current month has been the discovery of a monster nugget of pure gold, at Ballarat, weighing 2,217 ounces. This, the largest mass of the metal yet discovered, is thus described:

'This wonderful nugget is about twenty inches long by six or seven broad, and nearly as much deep. It had a narrow escape from being two nuggets instead of one, for at a point one-third from the end its continuity is only maintained by a narrow neck, which was so light that the men were afraid to handle their prize much, lest they might break it in two. In shape it has a grotesque resemblance to a skeleton horse's head and shoulders, the narrow part we have mentioned representing the neck; or it looks like a continent, with a peninsula attached to it by a narrow isthmus. It bears upon its sides the marks of several hard blows from the pick.'"

A CANAL THROUGH THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS.—During the recent debate in the British House of Commons on the subject of the renewal of the Hudson Bay Company's privileges, Lord Burry affirmed that a communication might easily be established between Lake Superior and the Pacific Ocean, by means of a ship canal connecting the head waters of the Saskatchewan and Columbia Rivers. Both rivers take their rise in the Rocky Mountains, the Columbia flowing West to the Pacific, and the Saskatchewan running East to Lake Winnipeg, a little to the North-West of Lake Superior. With the exception of a single rapid, (which might be avoided by a canal) his Lordship stated that the navigation of the Saskatchewan offers no difficulty. With that one exception, a vessel of considerable size can be taken up to the foot of the Rocky Mountains, and at this point there is a gap in the Mountains which interposes no great obstacles to the junction of the Columbia and Saskatchewan, whose sources are but a little distance apart. Thus a direct water communication would be established to the Pacific.

SNAKE STORY.—The Hunterdon (N. J.) Gazette is responsible for the following tough snake story: A snake was killed by William Boss on his farm in Union township, on the 12th inst., which, on being opened, was found to contain 78 young snakes, measuring from five to seven inches in length, and each one tied in a knot No one knew to what species they belonged.—The large snake measured three feet in length and five inches in circumference.

☞ It is stated that the people of the City of London sent by post 82,000,000 more letters during the last ten years, than all the people of the United States, although the population of this country is ten times greater. Of the 95,000,000 letters posted in London, more than 49,000,000 were for circulation within the limits of that city.

From the Kilkenny Journal, Aug. 11.

The Riots in Ireland.

We regret to announce that the peace of the city has not only been seriously endangered for some days past, but that acts of violence have been perpetrated in several parts of the country by a large body of laborers from this and the surrounding counties, who have been thrown out of employment by the introduction of machinery for agricultural purposes On last Sunday, upwards of 4,000 persons assembled in our streets, most of them armed with reaping hooks, yelling in a most frightful manner, to the great dismay of the citizens, who were hourly expecting nothing less than the sack of the city. Fortunately, the rioters were allowed to have their own way as long as there was no overt act of violence in the streets; and we think the Mayor and the authorities acted with great prudence on the occasion, as a single arrest might have led to most lamentable consequences. The mob, we believe, consisted principally of disbanded militiamen, from Tipperary, Queen's County, and Kings County, with an auxiliary force from the neighborhood: and it would seem as if there was a certain amount of preconcert and organization in the movement. On Sunday the city may be said to have been absolutely in their possession, but no violence took place beyond the shouting and yelling we have already mentioned.

On Monday morning at daybreak, the streets rang with the rioters, who held a sort of council of war, in which it was decided that all the machinery in the country should be forthwith destroyed, as the only chances of employment for the laborer. After parading the streets for some time, they proceeded at 6 o'clock, to Oldtown, about two miles from this city, to the residence of a farmer named Walsh, and commenced breaking his reaping machine, which they soon smashed into fragments. Walsh offered no resistance, as he considered it useless, but looked on quietly, and the mob proceeded on their work of destruction, without offering him any personal violence. At nine o'clock they reached Pigeon park, (near Danesfort,) the residence of Mr. Howson, a Scotchman, and prepared to attack his machine also. Howson and his family, on the other hand prepared to defend it; but at the outset his gun was knocked out of his hand by a blow of a large stone, with which he was struck on the arm. One of his sons seized the gun and ran off with it; but while in the act of doing so he was closely pursued, when he turned round and fired, but without effect upon his pursuers. He was instantly seized and the gun taken from him and broken; but he suffered no personal violence at the hands of the rioters. We regret to say that his father was not so fortunate, for, while striving to defend the machine, he was knocked down, and received several severe injuries in the head and jaw; but though severely hurt, we are happy to say he is not in danger.—While Mr. Howson was lying on the ground, his daughter, with the courage of a heroine, seized a pitchfork and held it above him, threatening instant death to whomsoever should touch a hair of his head; but she, also, after some vain resistance, was speedily disarmed, and received some slight injuries in the struggle.

The machine was then broken to pieces, and more disgraceful still, Mr. Howson's gold watch was carried off by the rioters. The work of destruction was not proceeded with further on that day; and though several rumors were afloat in the city yesterday as to other intended attacks on machinery, nothing has occurred to justify these rumors. Yesterday morning the crowd again assembled in the streets, and paraded up and down in thousands, as on the previous day, cheering and shouting, and yelling, till about 9 o'clock, when the city resumed its usual orderly appearance. None of the rioters have been apprehended, or even identified; and the only steps that have been taken to prevent the recurrence of these lawless proceedings is an order from the authorities for two troops of dragoons, which were telegraphed from the Curragh camp yesterday, and which were expected to arrive in town last night. A meeting of magistrates, also, was held in Stoneyford yesterday, in the neighborhood of these outrages, to consider and devise the best means to be adopted for the protection of life and property in the county.

LATER.—The subjoined telegraphic despatch gives the latest news from the scene of the late agricultural disturbances:

The excitement which has existed here for two days, in consequence of the riotous conduct of some harvest men, has subsided to a great extent, owing, no doubt, to the prompt measures adopted for the repression of further outrages.—Last night at 12 o'clock a special train arrived here from Dublin, bearing two troops of the 3rd Dragoons, under the command of Col. Unett; and to-day a special detachment of fifty constabulary, under the command of Mr. Auchmuty, S. I., from the depot in the Phœnix Park, also arrived. This force has been distributed in those quarters of the city where riotous demonstrations were most strongly apprehended, but up to the present no occasion has arisen for their active interference.

The Frazer River Gold Mines.

The Excitement Dying Away—Emigrants Returning—The Mines still Supposed to be Rich.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.

The excitement in relation to the Frazer River gold mines has remained about stationary. If anything, it has probably undergone a further diminution. The freshness of the discovery has worn away, and the letters of speculators and miners have produced their effect. People are now ready to look before they leap, and show no disposition to rush madly off without proper supplies, or anything like an adequate knowledge of the country they propose to settle in for a long or short period. A considerable number of those who were first carried off by the furore have returned to San Francisco, and have distributed themselves throughout the State. But few of them have ever seen the mines, and less attempted to test their richness. They are for the most part those who made a short stay at Victoria, Sahome, Whatcom, and other points in Puget Sound, "waiting for the river to fall." They, tired of waiting and seeing no prospect near that the river was going to settle out, have become disgusted with a country which is not unobservable to say they are as ignorant of, as the ancient Greeks were of the existence of America, and are now as loud and vehement in their denunciations, as they were at first loud and vehement in their laudation.

There individuals are the precise representatives of a class of men who immigrated to California in 1849, and finding that here, as elsewhere, exertion and perseverance were necessary to the acquisition of wealth, became despondent and incredulous, and wrote dolorous letters to their friends in the East, in many instances, sending by application for money to pay their fare back to their homes.

However, all these discouraging missives did not prevent sober, settled men from deliberately calculating the chances of success in California, and from as deliberately coming out here, prepared for a wrestle with fortune. Nor did they prevent those last from developing the vast mineral and agricultural resources of the State, and from making large sums of money. Much the same will be the course of events in Washington Territory and in the Hudson Bay Company's possessions.

There are, it is true, difficulties up there to be overcome far greater than any that existed here. The face of the country in the new mining region is broken by many high and inaccessible mountains, and the climate is none of the best, though the inequalities of each have been greatly exaggerated. But topographical and meteorological obstacles will melt away like the snow upon the Cascades under the heat of a northern sun, if the great fact of the existence of gold in sufficient quantities to justify a large immigration is satisfactorily established; and in the minds of thinking men, who are not included among those who see danger to California in the large exodus that has taken place, it is nearly established now as it can be until the mines are fairly opened and quantities of the precious metal extracted.

☞ The Wellington sarcophagus is at length finished, and the remains of the great Duke repose undisturbed by the side of those of Nelson. It was made of a huge porphyry boulder, which had lain for ages upon the Teffray estate at Luxalyan, in Cornwall. At Treffray, in the field in which it was found, it was cut into the form of a sarcophagus, polished by steam, and, when completed finally, conveyed to St. Paul's. The color is a rich reddish brown, with yellowish markings. The sarcophagus rests upon a base of light granite, each of the four corners being sculptured with a lion's head. The epitaph of the sarcophagus is simply the great Duke's name.

THE CROPS.—The wheat crop in this county, although poor, has surpassed our expectations. The China wheat is excellent and fully equal to the last year's yield. Oats never yielded better, and as for corn and potatoes there is no end to them. Give us Waupaca County yet.—Waupaca Excelsior Aug. 25.

☞ A genuine whale, forty-four feet in length, last week astonished the people of Virginia by making its appearance in the Chesapeake.—After shooting it repeatedly from a boat, and lancing it with a sword, they succeeded in killing it, and dragged it ashore, where it was examined by thousands.

OBSTRUCTING A STREET.—Three workmen of O. F. AUSTIN'S were arrested, yesterday, on complaint of JONATHAN TAYLOR, for violating the first section of the street ordinance, by putting down posts for a fence on the corner of Spring and West Water streets, in front of Armory Hall, fifteen feet from the sidewalk. Mr. AUSTIN owns the property on which the Hall stands, and claims ownership to the corner for several feet outside of the sidewalk, and his object in putting up the fence, he stated, was to prevent the draymen from making a stand of that corner, as they had been in the habit of doing. He said, however, he was not aware of the existence of the ordinance which he was charged with violating. Mr. TAYLOR offered to withdraw the complaint if Mr. AUSTIN would agree to have the posts taken up, and the damage done made good; which being agreed to, ended the matter.

AN APPEAL TO THE POLICE.—An infuriated son of the bogs came to the Station House yesterday with a jug under his arm. When his excitement had sufficiently subsided to enable the Station House Keeper to understand his complaint, it was ascertained that he had purchased a gallon of molasses, some time ago, of a grocery keeper down in the Third Ward, which molasses had proved not to possess all the good qualities recommended by said grocery vender, and Pat wanted to have him arrested "shure!" He was very anxious to have the officer taste the molasses, a small portion of which was still in the bottom of the jug, but the latter refused very politely, and recommended the indignant Third Warder to state his case to lawyer FETCHENWAGEN.

"RUS" WHEELER IN THE POLICE COURT.—RUSSEL WHEELER made his appearance at the Police Court yesterday morning, to answer to the charge of participating in the free fight, at the Democratic caucus in the First Ward, on Monday; but, as no one appeared to prosecute the case, Mr. WHEELER was discharged. We cannot but think that if the defendant had been any one but a politician of the Hadley stripe, the result would have been otherwise.

THE PRESCOTT HOUSE.—The Hotel Wetterein, has been re opened by Mr. SPARR, late of New York City, and will hereafter be known as the Prescott House, this being the name of the well known Broadway Hotel, with which Mr. SPARR was for some time connected. The Prescott House is situated on the corner of East Water and Oneida streets. It has recently been furnished a new, and thoroughly renovated throughout. We have no doubt but that it will soon become a popular hotel, particularly among the German population.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The Public Schools of our city open, for the Fall term, on Monday next. The new School House in the Second Ward is not yet completed, but will, it is thought, be ready by the middle of the month. The schools will all be full, according to present appearances.

POLICE RECORD FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST.—Mr. RODEE, of the police force, of this city, informs us that the whole number of arrests made by the police for the month of August, was two hundred and sixty six, for the following offences:

FESTIVAL OF THE CORNET BAND.—The programme of the Festival to be given next Monday eve., at Albany Hall, by Merrill's American Cornet Band, will be found in our advertising columns this morning. It promises to be one of the pleasantest entertainments of the season, and ought to fill the Hall. The music will be first rate and refreshments will be provided by U. E. DICKINSON & Co., of the "Albany Restaurant, who cannot be surpassed. The Band deserves a benefit. Let them have one, Monday.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—The case of Russel Wheeler, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed for want of prosecution. Christian was fined $5, and T. Bradley $1, for being intoxicated. A woman named Christiana Boltner, was sent to jail in default of $10 fine for vagrancy, and Ann McGowan was fined $2 for disorderly conduct. Floyd Briggs, and Robert Anderson, arrested on a charge of obstructing a street,—case not prosecuted.

ENGINE HOUSE FOR NO. 1.—Work has been commenced in earnest on the Engine House for No. 1., and it will be pushed forward rapidly.—The new house will occupy the South twenty feet of the old University lot, on Main street, and will be a neat and commodious structure. There will be a "house-warming," you had better believe, when it is finished.

SEVENTH WARD PRIMARY SCHOOL.—In consequence of the building of the new Engine House for No. 1, and the necessity of cutting away a portion of the old University building, the Primary School in the Seventh Ward cannot be opened for a fortnight, or more, yet.

DISSOLUTION.—It will be seen, by a notice elsewhere, that the firm of GRIFFIN & BURNS, ticket agents, has been dissolved. Mr. BURNS will continue to carry on the business at the old stand, foot of East Water street.

LATE DISCOVERIES IN PATHOLOGY show that very many of the diseases which afflict mankind arise from impurity of the blood. This has long been suspected but is only lately known. In consumption, tubercles are found to be a sedimentary deposite from the blood. Dropsy, Gout, Cancer, Ulcers and Eruptions, all arise in disordered depolited from the blood. Billious diseases and fevers are caused soreby by its deranged unhealthy state, and even the debility of life follows a want of vitality in the blood. In view of these facts DR. AYER designed his Cathartic Pill especially to purify and invigorate the blood, and hence we believe to arise its unparalelled success in controlling and curing disease.—Medical Journal.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday, September 1st., by the Rev. Mr. STAPLES, Mr. FRANCIS J. CROSBY to Miss FANNIE A. NOYES.

At Stonington, Connecticut, on the 23d of August, in Calvary Church, by the Rev. Mr. Weston, his Excellency THEODORE MARINAS ROYST VAN LIMBURG, Minister Resident of his Majesty the King of the Netherlands to the United States, to ISABELLA, daughter of the Hon. Lewis Cass, Secretary of State of the United States.

DIED.

At Oconomowoc, on the 25th ult., Miss HATTIE BINGHAM, aged 19 years, 2 months, 4 days.

Miss B. came to the village of Oconomowoc last September. During the winter term she attended the public school, where she not only stood among the first in the school in regard to scholarship, but was first also in the confidence and affections of all with whom, as a scholar, she was associated. At the commencement of the spring term, she was engaged as a teacher in the school she had attended during the winter, and continued to discharge her duties as teacher until her health failed. We hear her spoken of as a teacher no less commendably than as a scholar.

Few persons, we think, have in so short a time gained so many warm friends as the deceased, and when conscious, as she was, that the thoughts of these would follow her beyond the grave, part of the bitterness of death must have been taken away.

She had lived in such a manner that with pleasure

"She sat and though, when the sunset's gold
Was flushing river, and hill, and shore,
That she now stood by the water cold
And listened to hear the boatman's oar.
And she watched for a gleam of the flashing sail;
She heard the boat as it gained the strand;
And passed from sight with the boatman pale
To the better shore of the Spirit land."

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.

A most beautiful day, with clear sky, warm sun and cooling north-west breeze. Preparations for the grand fete have been going on, on Broad way, nearly all night. At early morning that thoroughfare presented a most animated appearance. Platforms and temporary balconies are plentiful along the whole route marked out for procession. Throughout the city waving flags, appropriate Devices and Mottoes are more numerous than ever before at any celebration.

Many buildings on Broadway are decorated, and the most lavish preparations are made for the coming illumination. Houghwort's warehouse alone will show over eight thousand variegated lights. The people began to flock into the city from the suburbs, at an early hour of the morning, so that before 9 o'clock Broadway was crowded to excess.

"Bribery and Corruption" Endorsed by the Democracy.

The people of this State cannot have forgotten that all through last fall's campaign the leading organs of the Sham Democracy teemed with charges of "bribery and corruption" against the State Officers, and Members of the Legislature of 1856, and were clamorous for an investigation into all the matters connected with the Land Grant. The Republican Press promptly and universally seconded this demand, and the Republican Legislature, heeding the voice of the People, instituted and carried through a searching Investigation of the Land Grant Legislation of 1856. This, however, was not the entertainment to which the Democratic papers had invited the public. Their only object in raising the cry of "bribery and corruption" was to prejudice the Republican party in the eyes of the People, and secure to themselves the coveted power and spoils of which they had been for some time deprived. Hence, in the Legislature, and out of it, indirectly, rather than directly, Democratic leaders and presses opposed the investigation, and sought in various ways to hinder its progress and defeat its object. We need not recall to the reader's recollection the controversy of certain principal witnesses—a controversy which like Lieut. Gov. McARTHUR'S claim to the Executive chair vacated by the fugitive Gov. BARSTOW, only yielded to "constructive force."

When the investigation, in spite of all obstacles, was pushed to a conclusion and the results published to the world, the Democratic papers raised a second and even louder clamor. They could not find words to express their indignation at the facts revealed in the Report. They were at a loss for terms in which to depict the atrocity of the acts, or the depravity of the actors, in the Land Grant Legislative drama. They were inexpressibly shocked at the unexpected discovery that State officials and members of the Legislature had coolly pocketed their $,5000, $10,000, $20,000, and even larger sums, in the shape of "pecuniary compliments" from the La Crosse and Milwaukee R. R. Company. But there was a method in their madness It was observable, in the midst of all their outcry, that their indignation was wholly directed against Republican sinners. Those of their own political faith, who had been implicated in these discreditable transactions, were passed by in silence; but they launched their loudest thunders against Republican offenders. This speedily confirmed the suspicion, first excited by their opposing the Investigation, that the clamor against the "bribery and corruption" of 1856, was a mere party ruse to deceive the People and thus obtain, under false pretenses, a new lease of power. Recent events have removed all doubt that this was the sole object of their outcry.

It is not necessary to say that Mr. BYRON KILBURN is the leading figure in the Report of the Investigating Committee. He was the chief "Propitator" at the memorable Legislative Session of 1856. His right and left hand men were JACKSON BADLEY and CHARLES E. JENKINS. The parts which they respectively played are described at length in the Report. No doubt our readers are pretty familiar with them. They were all three identified, from first to last, with every incident in the "Bribery and Corruption" case. Mr. HADLEY, who was a member of the Legislature, received $20,000 for his services during the session. Now, with a knowledge of all these facts the Democracy of Milwaukee have just elected Messrs. KILBURN, HADLEY and JENKINS to represent them in the Congressional Convention for this District. Is not the conclusion irresistible that the Democracy of Milwaukee endorse and approve the "Bribery and Corruption" of 1856; and that the previous clamor of the Democratic press against it, was, like most of their principles, mere sham?

The Convention.

We cannot regard the Convention which is to be held at Racine to-day, with feelings of indifference. If wise counsels and prudent action prevail, it will prove a most auspicious event, otherwise it were better not to hold it. In the present distracted state of the opposition, it is easy for the Democracy to achieve a victory in this Congressional District. But in order to do this, we must avoid extraneous issues, both in making a nomination and in constructing a platform.—News of yesterday.

That is to say, we must ignore the Lecompton fact, keep mum about the designs of "the Forty" to repossess themselves of power and place, and put none but those of our own "faction" in nomination. Such is the News' programme. Its hope of a Democratic victory in this District, on account of "the distracted state of the opposition," will prove a delusion. The opposition are united to a man on JOHN F. POTTER, and will give him their hearty and triumphant support.

POTTER RE-NOMINATED.—"The Dutch have taken Holland"—Potter is renominated. The Republicans dare not refuse him a re-nomination. If they had, he would have punished them. He can do anything he chooses with the Republicans. They fear him. Our fighting contemporaries are enthusiastic over his pugilistic feats. Such "lusty blows for freedom!"—News.

And so on, through a number of spiteful and splenetic little paragraphs, all significant of the News' dislike of Mr. POTTER and dread of his nomination. The News owes Mr. POTTER no particular love, since, in compliance with the general voice of the People, he aided in ousting the editor of the News from the Post Office.—And it has good reason to fear his nomination, remembering the vote of the District two years ago.

THE FORTHCOMING LETTER.—Here is what the News has to say about that letter which is going to damage Gov. RANDALL and help the La Crosse Company so much:

The letter of Secretary THOMPSON, to which we made allusion on Sunday, will appear to-day or to-morrow, with several other letters on the same subject. We intend to present the matter to the people of Milwaukee in its true light—RANDALL has now got the Sentinel to sustain him. It was at first opposed to his course.

The Sentinel stands now precisely where it did at first. The promise of the News "to present this matter to the people of Milwaukee in its true light," indicates a healthful change in the tone and course of that paper. We are incredulous, however, as to the promised reform.

A Game that Two can Play at.

The threat of the News, a day or two since, that if Mr. JAMES S. BROWN should be nominated for Congress by the Democratic Convention, he would not be supported by the friends of Mr. CROSS, Mr. MCGARRY, Mr. BUTLER and other "garroted" candidates of the Democracy, provokes a retort from the Madison Patriot. That journal, after confessing its past political sins and promising, in future, to swallow all party measures and candidates without even making a wry face, has just been re-admitted into the Democratic fold. But it cannot stand the threat of the News, and accordingly the editor, S. D. C., writing from Milwaukee, talks in this wise:

Now, so far as I am concerned, I believe that there is no fear of a repetition of Barstowism among the Democracy.

I have made a solemn pledge to support all Democratic nominees hereafter, except such as may be in the act of personally stabbing me, and who would support such characters? and I had sincerely hoped that that portion of the Democratic party, with whom I have heretofore been compelled to differ, would see the policy, at least, of acting up close to their professions, and give as well as demand a reasonable fealty to party organization.

But, if the News and its Cohorts will persist in the "catch game" of heads we win—tails you lose," I can see no other result than utter defeat, at the very moment when victory seems most certain.

If the News carries out its threats, in the case of Mr. BROWN'S nomination, it will be a signal for a general revolt by the liberal democrats all over the State against all such nominees as the News faction may be able to train for the course.

The News may not "carry out its threats" openly, but it and all of its "faction" will improve every opportunity to "stab" all obnoxious candidates. The game of "the Barstow-Kilbourn interest" is to get control of the party first and, if possible, of the State afterwards. They seem to have won the first point, and it only depends upon the People to say whether they shall also succeed with the second.

NEITHER SCHOOLS NOR NEWSPAPERS.—Sir William Berkeley, one of the early Governors of Virginia, in 1671 wrote to King Charles II, "I thank God there are no free schools nor printing presses here, and I trust there will not be this hundred years; for learning breeds up heresies and sects and all abominations. God save us from both."

The present Governor of Virginia, HENRY A. WISE, when a member of Congress from Accomac, was as thankful as Gov. BERKELEY that there were no newspapers in his District. As to "free schools" Virginia does not tolerate such dangerous institutions. They might interfere with the "peculiar" one which is the chief boast of the State.

SLAVERY OR NOTHING.—"States should be permitted to choose between slavery and freedom," is the argument which has covered with the semblance of justice, the acts of a party at last defeated in their attempts to force a disagreeable Constitution on the people of KANSAS.

It appears from a speech of the Hon. W. W. BOYCE, at Yorkville, S. C., a few days ago, as it appeared last spring from the land bribe inserted in the English bill, that not between slavery and freedom, but between slavery or nothing, KANSAS was to have its choice. Mr. BOYCE said:

"KANSAS has voted upon this land proposition, and refuses to accept the terms offered, and therefore, remains out of the Union. This conclusively establishes the fact that KANSAS is ultra anti-slavery. This being the case, the best thing for us is for her to stay out of the Union.—Her coming in would only give an accession of strength to our enemies. I she should stay out forever, all the better.

NO MONOPOLY OF THE OCEAN TELEGRAPH.—The following from a New York paper of Saturday, is, we presume, a correct statement of a fact intended to be conveyed in a dispatch received a day or two since, but which was unintelligible:

We understand that Lord Derby, in answer to the representations of the Directors of the Atlantic Telegraph Company, has signified the willingness of the British Government to amend the Charter of the Company, so as to place its organization, &c., upon a footing of absolute equality as regards the British and American Governments.

NAVAL ENTERPRISE.—When the Secretary of the Navy visited the Yard at Brooklyn this week, he went aboard the Frigate Sabine and was received with the usual honors. A newspaper report says that the Secretary was "amused" to hear the history of the Sabine, which, though one of the oldest vessels in the Navy, has never been to sea yet! She was put on the stocks in 1819, and took over thirty years to be fit for launching, and nine more to get ready for sea!

Nor is this a solitary case. The Alabama, Seventy-Four, was on the stocks at Portsmouth twent years ago, and she is there still. The New Orleans, unfinished and roofed in, has been a show at Sacketts Harbor these forty years.—The New York, at Norfolk, is hardly nearer completion than she was in 1837. The Vermont and Virginia have been standing on the stocks in Boston Navy Yard while a whole generation of cotemporary ships have been built, used, and grown rotten.

All this may be "amusing" to the Secretary, but it is anything but funny to the tax-payers. Ships so delayed cost twice as much money, for they pass through the hands of different sets of contractors, and the natural decay of their timbers requires constant repairing. When they are at last finished, "thirty years after date," their model has grown antiquated, and they prove the slowest craft afloat. We venture to predict that any modern built clam-boat will outsail the Sabine, either on or off the wind.

This is the policy which keeps the American Navy filled with old fashioned, unseaworthy hulks, while surrounding Nations boast of their clipper modeled, fast sailing war-steamers, built in the same American ports, by the same American mechanics, side by side with our "Sabines," and "Alabamas."—Albany Journal.

EMANCIPATION IN THE PORTUGUESE COLONIES.—The King of Portugal issues proclamations abolishing slavery at Macao and Angola, and instituting a system of gradual emancipation in all the Portuguese Colonies—all children hereafter born in Slavery to become free on reaching the age of twenty.

All the world regards slavery as a relic of barbarism, except the United States of America.—Mexico and the South American Republics abolished it when they first raised the flag of independence. Great Britain abolished it in 1833.—France in 1849. Even the Sultan has shut up his Slave Market at Constantinople, and the Czar has just issued edicts of Emancipation from St. Petersburgh. The Portuguese, though they were the first to introduce Slavery, do not mean to be the last to abolish it. That distinction seems to be reserved either for Spain or the United States, with the chances rather in favor of the latter.—Albany Journal.

DEATHS FROM RATTLE-SNAKE BITES.—An Irishman, whose name is reported as Miles McAlvey, died yesterday in the town of Westport in this county, from the effects of a rattle-snake bite. He was bitten on Wednesday last on the finger, while turning hay. He was thought better on Saturday, but was taken worse again the next day.

A Norwegian woman—name not given—was bitten by a rattle snake, while picking blackberries near McFarland Station, last week, and subsequently died.—Madison Journal.

Copius doses of whiskey are said to be a sure cure for the bite of a rattlesnake.

CORWIN ON THE STUMP.—HON. Thomas Corwin attended a political meeting at Portsmouth on Wednesday night. After the Hon. Caleb Smith had finished speaking, a yell was raised for "Tom Corwin." Tom came forward with a smile upon his face, when some one called out—"I want to see Black Tom on the stump once more."

Corwin laughed, and replied—"That's the very reason why I dislike to appear at night. I don't appear to good advantage by candlelight.

The Fire Last Night.

Rescue of a Mother and her two Children—Noble Conduct of George Carr.

About 12 o'clock last night a fire broke out in the Eastern end cellar of the drug store of Dr. Harris, at the corner of Fourth and Main streets. The origin of the fire is not known. It was first discovered by the young men who slept in the drug store. They had just time to escape. One of them barely got away with his pantaloons before the store was filled with smoke. His bed was on fire when he awoke.

The cellar extends the whole length of the building, and the dense smoke shot up rapidly to the fourth story of the Eastern end of the building, where lived Mr. Richard A. Duncan, the periodical dealer.

When the engines and hook and ladder carriage arrived, Mrs. Duncan was seen at the window, imploring aid, and apparently about to leap to the ground. A large number of people had assembled by this time, and shouted to her lustily to keep back and shut the window, which she did.

In a few minutes, which seemed very long, indeed, a ladder was run up and the window reached.

Policeman George Carr, a noble fellow and a brave officer, ventured up the ladder and into the room, at the risk of his life. Water was freely played on, and he soon appeared, bearing Mrs. Duncan. As she was safely brought down, the pent up feelings of the crowd burst into loud cheers and clapping of hands. George ventured in again and brought out a child, which was passed down. A third time he entered and brought out the remaining child. Each time he appeared with his precious human freight, the large crowd gave him hearty cheers. There was in Mrs. Duncan's room, besides herself and two children, a hired girl, who had got out, while the others were escaping in front, to the back windows in the third story, whence she leaped on to a porch and escaped with no injury beyond a few bruises, and some suffocation.

Mrs. Duncan and children were taken into a room in the building on the corner of Hammond and Fourth streets, where their wants were cared for. All of them were suffocated by the smoke, dripping with cold water, and senseless. Their wet clothes were torn off, and after some rubbing their consciousness returned, and when we left them, at about 2 o'clock, they were fast recovering. Mrs. Duncan's husband was out of the city. The children were quite small, one two and a half and the other about five years old.

After they had been brought down, there were many who claimed the honor of saving the family, but it belongs to George Carr. He was the only person who entered the room, and handed out the family. John Leonard, belonging to the "Citizens' Gift" Company, Charles Gilman to the "Niagara" Company, and George Anderson to the "Deluge," received them from his hands and conveyed them down the ladder.

George Carr was taken to Scanlan's Drug Store in a dreadful condition. He was thence removed to the William Tell Restaurant, where he remained at the hour of writing. He had inhaled great quantities of smoke, and was in intense pain. When we left him, his loud breathings, as he endeavored to get the smoke from his lungs, could be heard through the closed doors out in the middle of the street.

Too much praise cannot be given to his noble daring and self sacrificing conduct.

The back part of the Drug Store, and the Periodical store were more burnt than any portion of the building. It is probable that designedly or accidentally some one threw a light into the cellar, through the open iron grating near the periodical store.

Of the amount of damage done we can form no estimate.

After the fire was got under, it was found that the cellar had nearly four feet of water in it, and one of the engines was set to pumping out what itself and the others had thrown in.

P. S.—At 2½ o'clock this morning Geo. Carr could not speak. His condition was very critical.—Cincinnati Gazette, Aug. 30.

Capture of a Slave Brig with over Three Hundred Africans.

KEY WEST, Sunday, Aug. 22, 1858.

The departure of the steamer Mount Taylor enables me to send you an important item of news, which is no less an event than the capture of a slaver by the United States brig Dolphin. The Dolphin, Lieutenant John N. Maffit Commanding, which has been cruising on the Northern coast of Cuba, called at Sigua la Grande on the 20th and left again on the 21st. Early in the morning of the same day she descried a suspicious looking sail ahead, steering the same course. The unknown vessel outsailed the Dolphin while going free, and towards evening he hauled his wind and showed by other manœuvering his wish to escape from the special attentions of the vessel in chase of him, though as yet she had shown no colors. Immediately on observing this movement the Dolphin tacked and stood on in chase of the escaping vessel, which now packed on all sail. The Dolphin then hoisted the English colors. The Dolphin then fired a blank cartridge; but no attention whatever was paid to it by the escaping vessel. It was now about the middle of the afternoon, and it was apparent that she would escape under the cover of the approaching darkness unless brought to at once.

At 4½ P. M., another gun was fired, which being unnoticed, in a half an hour afterwards a shot was thrown across her bows, when the suspected vessel hoisted the American ensign at her head. She still refused to heave to, however, but made every effort to avoid being overhauled. Capt Maffit then gave the order to fire a shot at her hull, which struck the fore-rigging and passed over the brig. This had the desired effect; the vessel hove to, and hauled down her colors. Lieut. J. M. Bradford, with a crew of marines, then went on board and found the brig to be from Congo River, with three hundred and twenty slaves on board. The crew were immediately placed below and confined, and the vessel was taken in charge by First Lieutenant Bradford, and Second Lieutenant Chas. C. Carpenter, and sixteen men. On the same day they proceeded toward Charleston, under orders of the commander of the Dolphin, which has arrived here. The captain of the slaver was taken on board the Dolphin, which will sail from here to-morrow for Boston. The name of the brig was Putnam, but had been changed to Echo, which was painted out. The captain is an eastern man, and refused to make any statements.—The capture of this vessel by the Dolphin reflects great credit upon her commander and other officers. You will be enabled to learn full particulars upon the arrival of this vessel at Charleston.—N. Y. Times.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.

The Paraguay Expedition.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21, 1858.

The exposition contained in the Union of this morning, of the intention of the Executive in regard to the Paraguay expedition, is doubtless authentic. It is satisfactory to know from such authority that the naval force at length provided for the service will be adequate to the reduction of the forts above the Three Bocos, and near the capital, Assumption. The instructions to the United States Commissioners are also referred to as having been completed, with a view to meet the evasive diplomacy of Lopez. Our little fleet will no doubt give a good account of itself.

In diplomacy the Spanish Americans excel, and it will perhaps be the policy of Lopez to temporize, and weary our Minister and naval commander with delays and force them to refer back to Washington for instructions. Whatever we are to do, whether in war or negotiations, with Paraguay, must be done promptly. A failure of the expedition would prove disastrous to American reputation throughout South America.

The population and resources of Paraguay are understated by the authorities ordinarily referred to. The population is estimated at 300,000; whereas, according to Mr. Hopkins, who was lately the United States Consul at Assumption, it is 650,000. That Lopez had 12,000 men under arms when threatened with an attack from his hostile neighbors, is well known. He has also European engineers and tacticians in his service. He has had too long a time for preparation against our expedition, and will perhaps attempt to obstruct the navigation of the river above the "three mouths." But this again would involve him in difficulty with England, France, Buenos Ayres and Brazil.

Another of his dodges will no doubt be to seek the mediation of a mutually friendly power, and even propose an arbitration, the acceptance of which, is probably forbidden by the instructions of our Minister.

President Lopez is the chief merchant, broker, cigar-maker and steamboat owner in his fertile dominions, and is reputed to be worth more money than the whole amount now in our Treasury, increased as it has been by the ten million loan. He can, therefore, easily pay the amount of indemnity which is claimed on account of spoliations upon our people.

GORED BY AN OX.—George Honeysett, of Harmony, was badly injured by an ox in this city yesterday. As he was driving an ox team up the bank from the river into North Main street, the oxen became frightened, and Mr. H. jumped from the wagon and ran ahead, when one of them caught him on his horn, which passed between two of Mr. H.'s ribs and he was carried in this manner across the street, before he was released. The wound is about three inches in depth, and it is feared the unfortunate man cannot recover.—Janesville Gazette.

The Resultant Springfield—The "Fort Hill Boy" and the New York Boats Successful.

SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 27.

The regatta here to-day has been quite a successful affair. At an early hour this morning the shore of the river where the race was to take place presented quite an animated appearance, lined with boatmen hurrying to and fro to prepare for the contest, venders of fruit and knicknacks, and spectators who spent their time in examining the different boats, and discussing their respective merits.

At 11 o'clock, the time appointed for the first race, as many as 4,000 persons were assembled on the shore. The Union Brass Band of Springfield, occupied the time till the commencement of the race in playing various popular melodies. The first race was open for all four oared clinker-built boats, to row a mile and a half and return. The following boats were entered:—Dan Bryant of New York; Frank G. Wood of New burg; Pride of Boston, and the Bonita of New London.

At 21 minutes past 11 the signal was given and the boats started. At first the Dan Bryant was ahead, and it was the general opinion that she would keep her place to the end. She is a handsome boat, 40 feet long, sits low, and presents a very smooth surface in the water. The Frank G. Wood differs not much in appearance from the Bryant; is of the same length, but is built somewhat differently, so as to present a rougher appearance in the water. The Bonita and Pride of Boston sit much higher in the water than the others, and the Bonita carries a coxswain. As the boats neared the stake the Frank G. Wood was several lengths ahead, while the other boats appeared to have given up, and were rowing quite leisurely. The following was the time made:

Frank G. Wood	22 min.	0 sec.
Dan Bryant	25 "	50 "
Bonita	24 "	0 "
Pride of Boston	24 "	10 "

SECOND RACE.

Immediately after the first race the six oared boats came into line, taking their places (as did all the boats in the other races) as previously drawn by lot. For this race the following boats were entered:—Una, of Hartford, rowed by the Xantha club of the same city, Fort Hill Boy, of Boston, and Bonita, of New London. The boats started at 10 minutes past 12. The Una began with a quick stroke, almost leaping from the water, but the Fort Hill Boy pulling steadily, kept upwith her for a quarter of an hour, when the two boats fouled. The Fort Hill Boy recovered first and kept her position ahead to the Judges' boat. The following is the time made (this race being also for a mile and a half and return:)

Fort Hill Boy	21 min.
Bonita	21 "	45 sec.
Una	22 "	5 "

The winning boat is well known in Boston—She is not a model race-boat but is pulled by a crew of superior oarsmen, Toe Bonita was the same boat which entered the first race, with two additional rowers.

THIRD RACE.

The third race came off in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, and was open to all Sculler's boats or wherries. The following boats entered: East end, of Boston, rowed by E. Harrington; B. B. Odell, of Newburg, by John Hankins; T. H. Seymour, of Newburg, by Andrews Fay; Rapahannock, of New York, by Hugh Brown; and the Chitabob, of Boston, by T. H. Dailey. The gun was fired at 3 minutes and 30 seconds past 3. It was evident that this race was between the Seymour and Rapahannock, both rowed by stalwart oarsmen, who were models of physical strength. The Chitabob, which was on the side farthest from the judges' boat, failed to get the signal in time, and so started a light and a half behind the other boats. The race was for one mile and return, and the time made was as follows:

T. H. Seymour	16 min.	10 secs.
Rapahannock	16 "	15 "
Chitabob	16 "	17 "
Eastern	17 "	30 "
Odell	18 "	"

FOURTH RACE.

This was announced as the grand race for sweepstakes, open to all boats pulled by four oars or over, but owing to various causes, but three boats entered. By a decision of the Judges, all boats that had taken prizes in the morning races, were ruled out of the race, and thereby the hopes of the spectators who had expected to see a grand trial between a dozen boats, were disappointed. The boats that entered were the following: Winona, 6 oars, of Springfield, rowed by the Pride of Boston Club, with two additional rowers. Hornet of New York, 4 oars, and Experiment of New York, 4 oars. The boats started at quarter before 4 o'clock. The race at first seemed to be between the Hornet and Experiment—but the Hornet, imitating the Bryant, laid off and outfaced the Experiment to come in nearly three minutes ahead of her.—The following is the time made:

Experiment	21 min.	30 sec.
Winona	22 "	50 "
Hornet	24 "	25 "

The Experiment is a mahogony shell boat, and was for this reason ruled out of the first race.—Boston Traveller.

What the Ocean Telegraph will Do.

We believe we are stating the precise fact when we say that the instruments now in use at Trinity Bay and Valentia record words at the rate of two per minute, or 120 per hour. Improvements will doubtless be made upon this, but at this rate the cable can transmit more than 2,800 per day. If this is true, and we do not make the statement at random, the net income of the Company cannot be less than 20 per cent upon the capital invested, even with the present cable. Other cables may, however, be laid down at a greatly reduced cost, proportionately increasing the profits of the enterprise. This is as it should be. The bold and persistent men who have embarked in such an undertaking ought to reap splendid rewards, not merely in universal and abiding renown, but in the grosser form of riches. Their success will be likely, however, to call forth competition for the magnificent harvest.

As soon as the line is definitely thrown open to the public, the Associated Press of this city will have its reporters in Europe, who will daily send us the intelligence of all parts of that continent. In this we shall not imitate the petty habits of the London and Paris journals, who use the telegraph as grudgingly as if its costs were beyond their means; and it is not impossible that the appearance of American reporters in England and on the continent may produce a revolution in the telegraphing economy of our transatlantic cotemporaries. However that may be, the readers of the Tribune of a week or two hence may rely on being supplied every morning with the fullest attainable details of whatever has transpired on the day previous, in all parts of the globe whither a telegraphic wire has been stretched.—N. Y. Tribune.

THAT SINGULAR VEGETABLE GROWTH.—Some three months since, a singular growth of two mushrooms, from the dressing on a boy's wounded leg, was mentioned in this paper, as having occurred in this city. The name of the boy upon whom the phenomenon occurred was not given. The paragraph went "the rounds" and called from some of the papers expressions of doubt of its truthfulness, some going so far as to pronounce it a hoax. A person living in Troy, N. Y., and having an acquaintance in this city, became much interested in the circumstance, which was learned from a Troy paper that pronounced the story a myth, as to write to the friend here for information in regard to it, if it actually occurred. In this manner our attention has again been called to it, and we have taken pains to make further inquiries. The boy upon whose leg the mushrooms grew, is Mr. John Townsend's son, who came near losing both his legs by a collision of two hand-cars on the railroad in the early part of May. One of his legs was very badly mangled, and the first dressing upon it was prudently suffered to remain several days without being disturbed. In the mean time the blood with which the dressing was saturated, was undergoing the process of decomposition, during which it requires not much credulity to believe that a condition favorable to the propagation of mushrooms was established, and their growth was favored by the unchanging position in which the wounded limb was maintained. We now learn that instead of only two mushrooms, there were actually three that grew in one night, perfect in all their proportions, and several others in the earlier stages of growth, from beneath, and just at the edge of the compress, from which the perfect ones were all carefully removed and preserved in spirits. They are now in a good state of preservation, and may be seen by the curious, if they will take the trouble to call at Mr. Townsend's house, where they can also see the wounded lad, who is now nearly recovered from his injuries without the loss of either leg, for which he is probably more grateful to Dr. Kimball than if amputation had been resorted to, though many surgeons would undoubtedly have felt justified in removing one leg.—Adrian (Mich.) Expositor.

PENALTY FOR FRUIT STEALING, &c.—The Legislature of last winter passed an act for the protection of Fruit and Fruit Trees, Ornamental Trees and Shrubbery, to which it may be well to invite public attention at this season.

Section one provides that "every person who shall willfully and maliciously enter any orchard, nursery or garden, and carry away, mutilate or destroy any tree, shrub or vine, or steal, take or carry away any fruit or flower, without the consent of the owner thereof," &c., &c., "shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail, for a period not exceeding three months."—Fox Lake Gazette.

Address— JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN,
Publishers Daily Sentinel Milwaukee Wis.

From Newport.

The Great Ball at the Fillmore House—Who were there—The Young Lords—The Ladies' Dresses, Described by a Lady.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 25.

Whatever may be said to the contrary, Newport never had a more brilliant season than this. In the most high and palmy state of this famed watering-place heretofore, one grand ball has been thought glory enough for the summer.—This year, however, within a week, two balls of a most expensive and elaborate description, and each attended by from one thousand to fifteen hundred people, have been given, and a third is set down for Tuesday next, which promises to eclipse all its predecessors.

The ball at the Fillmore, given last evening in honor of Col. Magruder, of Fort Adams, is pronounced unsurpassed in splendor and perfection of its getting up, by any similar affair, either in Newport, Saratoga or New York.—Even in the great demonstrations in the New York Academy of Music, there was by no means so large a proportion of magnificently dressed women, who are necessarily the great feature of such occasions.

The spacious halls and parlors of the Fillmore were all thrown open for the festivities, and the wide piazza had been enclosed for a promenade by a massive awning at the sides, while the variegated Chinese lanterns of pink, blue, green and other brilliant colors, shed lustre upon the numerous couples who were walking or sitting within it.

The dancing hall had been arrayed with a most lavish adornment of flags, pink and white streamers, and flowers, and the military character of this festive compliment to Colonel Magruder was betokened by a large evergreen M on the wall, at one end of the room, from which radiated a large number of unsheathed swords attached in a circle around it. The room was brilliantly lighted, and with the inspiring music of the Germanians, in addition to the four hundred bottles of champagne, said to be drunk at the supper, there was every stimulus to active dancing which could be demanded; and certainly from the first Lancers to the last German, never were the opportunities for dancing more sedulously improved, and the sun of this morning rose from his ocean bed to witness the closing efforts of the young dancers.

Of the large number of well known persons present, I may mention Senator Gwin, of California, Gov. Bancroft, Theodore Sedgwick, District Attorney for New York; Hon. G. S. Hillard, of Boston; Henry T. Tuckerman; Stalgg, the artist; R. B. Minturn, of New York; Francis Corbin, an American resident of long standing in Paris; Wm. C. Rives, of Virginia; Ehninger, the artist; J. Winthrop Chandler, member of the N. Y. Legislature; C. C. Cambreling, Jr. and others.

Two of the four young noblemen, who have been the rage of society, are said to have been present, though I saw but one. Lord Ribbledale was one of the Committee of Managers of the ball. Concerning one of these gentlemen a story is told, showing the tricks which are played on unsuspecting travellers. I cannot vouch for it, however. It appears that he was introduced to Tennant, familiarly known as "Dr. Tennant," the very free-and-easy livery stable man of Newport, and taking him for a medical man of a social pleasure-seeking turn, rather enjoyed a few minutes' acquaintance with him, going so far as to accept Tennant's invitation for a ride to a matinee at Mr. Bancroft's to which the youthful noble was going. What was his surprise on reaching the door of that fashionable mansion, to hear in response to the question, "Doctor why don't you come in?" the reply, "I thank you, Lord——, I prefer to stay on the box; I'm not invited."

Tennant is really a character, and knows all the fashionable ladies most intimately, designating this matronly lady as Mother So and So, and promiscuously styling this, that and the other of the belles by their Christian names—Amelia, Charlotte, or whatever else it may be. He is, however, perfectly at home, and is almost as indispensable to Newport as the sea breezes and the summer travellers.

The handsome Brignoli was of course on hand, looking as fat and well oiled as any other Italian tenor. His dark, beautiful, though slightly expressionless eyes, joined to his plump figure, do a vast deal of execution among the young ladies, whether he does Maurice in the boots on the stage of the Academy, or drives his splendid bay span about the street, clad in the loose fitting pantaloons, and tight neck collar of the Newport exquisite. Brignoli did not dance, but acted the wall-flower during the whole evening.

The young lords are somewhat surprised at the attentions they receive in American society, which are so much more than boys of their age ever obtain at home. During the ball a lady guest rather bothered one of the juveniles by asking his title. "Lord ——," was the reply. "I know that," replied the lady, "but have you no other title at home?" "Oh, yes," responded the lord, "father calls me Freddy."

Time would fail me to enumerate the beauties of the occasion, or to adequately descant on the opulence of white shoulders and graceful figures and fair faces, some of which were a little too highly rouged and varnished for my taste.—Many of the ladies were young and fair, and all had been either one or the other. There were also not a few of what may without disrespect, be termed old stagers, at Newport—ungathered roses, from whom time has irreverently plucked not a few of the charms which once enthralled the gallant lookers-on. Although this decline of natural attractions is not accompanied by a corresponding deterioration of mind and heart, it is impossible not to feel a special, nay, an almost affectionate solicitude for some of these young lady veterans, when one has seen them season after season, so long dancing and flirting in vain for husbands, which they finally get only to be made wretched by the result of their efforts.—The waning symmetry of form and the sallow stains which time and social dissipation have left on their cheeks, are melancholy appeals to commiseration, which even the revelry of the ball room cannot drive out of mind. "Oh, if I were only rich," said a benevolent bystander, "I would marry the whole of them." However, this is no place to moralize, and I must conclude, leaving a more minute description of the ball to competent hands.—N. Y. Express.

YELLOW FEVER AT NEW ORLEANS—YOUTH OF ITS VICTIMS—AN INCIDENT.—The fever this year, we observe, is unusually severe on young people. Every other funeral we see down town, the coffin and crape are white. Passing a knot of women yesterday, we heard one say—"It's awful bad among the young folks; I knew a splendid girl that died yesterday, only sixteen years old." The different benevolent societies are making every preparation to attend to the fever if it gets within their ranks.

A French ship was towed up the river and landed at one of the Third District wharves, on Saturday night. She had quite a number of French immigrants on board, who, in their joy at nearing the land of freedom, joined heart and soul in singing the anti-Napoleonic hymn known as the "Marseillaise." They kept on singing after the ship was made fast. A police officer, going on board, stepped up to them, and said to them in their own language, "Gentlemen, don't sing so loud; there are a great many sick people about here, for the yellow fever is very bad."—This was the first the immigrants knew of the fever being in the city; and they at once stopped singing—incontinently—and—with feelings which may better be imagined than described. Among the passengers were eleven Catholic priests and four nuns, who expressed not a little alarm, saying that, as they had come over by invitation of the archbishop, they felt it would be his duty to send them back or to some other place of safety as soon as possible. This is certainly a bad time of year for foreign immigrants to land in New Orleans.—Crescent, Aug. 16.

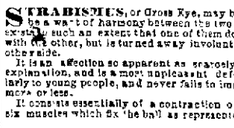
EYE AND EAR INFIRMARY!
MEIGS CASE, M. D.,
OPERATOR UPON THE EYE & EAR.
LECTURES ON THE EYE.
STRABISMUS, or Cross Eye, may be defined to be a want of harmony between the two eyes, which exists in such an extent that one of them does not move with the other, but is turned away involuntarily to the other side.
It is an affection so apparent as scarcely to require explanation, and is a most unpleasant defect, particularly to young people, and never fails to impair the sight more or less.
It consists essentially of a contraction of one of the six muscles which fix the ball as represented in the cut.


The operation is usually performed by me, in a few seconds, and is always entirely successful, both in relieving the deformity and improving the vision to a great degree.
Operations for Cataract, artificial pupil, &c., scientifically and successfully performed.
French artificial eyes inserted without operation or pain, having the appearance and all the motions of the natural eye.
All the recent discoveries and improvements in the diagnosis and treatment of ocular and aural diseases, will be resorted to for the restoration and preservation of the most valuable of the senses, sight and hearing.
Persons from a distance will be provided with boarding houses by making application at the office immediately on arriving in the City.
Operations, medicines and advice gratuitously given to persons who are really indigent, during the unoccupied moments of the operator.

It is free myself, not liable to get out of repair, requires but little power to run it, and the grain after going through is constructed as to readily adapt itself to be re-sewed for years. G. SIMMONDS,
SOLE PROPRIETOR AND MANUFACTURER OF PURE OHIO
Catawba Brandy.
THIS Brandy has been manufactured for several years from the pure juice of the Catawba Grape, thus affording additional evidence of the progress of American enterprise and industry, and of our ability to produce articles at home, equal to those made by any other people.
The Ohio Catawba Brandy, not only equals but excels the best imported Brandies, in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best Brandy known. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished and physical chemists.
The want of pure brandy has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such quality as I now offer to the public, at prices at which those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded a great public good. The Catawba Brandy poses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported liquors, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Cramp, Colic, Languor, Low Spirits, General Debility, &c.
NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.
Retail Price Five Dollars per Bottle.

The market to-day has been a little more active, the sales at the southern depots footing up nearly seventeen thousand bushels of wheat, and choice samples of milling spring are fairly higher, with a little more firmness in warehouse grades. The principal sales were No. 1 at 95c, but some nice samples went up as high as 96c to store, while first rate milling lots sold for 91@92. With increased receipts the market becomes more buoyant. At present rates there is little or no margin left for shipping to New York, nevertheless, holders exhibit no anxiety to sell at these prices. We quote to-day:

WHEAT.—Market more active at 92@97c for No. 1, 95c@1,02 for extra spring, $1a1,05 for red winter, and white do $1,02@1,07. We note following sales: 875 bus common spring at 93c; 1,435 bus No. 1 do at 95c, 2,500 bus do at 96c, 2,000 bus extra do at 98, 1,360 bus do at $1, 1,140 bus do at $1,02, 350 bus red winter at $1,00, 300 bus medium white at $1,06, and 1,712 bushels good white at $1,12½.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

☞ The schooner Star of Hope arrived at Port Colborne, C. W., on the 28th ult., with the crew of the bark Ontario—nine men and a woman—which is water-logged off Long Point. They were seven hours in the rigging. There are two other vessels ashore on Long Point. One of them is supposed to be the sch. Isabella, of Toronto.

☞ The Cleveland Herald of Monday last, Aug. 30, says:

The propeller Prairie State was at Malden, Saturday, on her way down, and reported having had mast broken off below the cross-trees, when of Saginaw, by the sudden jibbing of the sail. The propeller Milwaukee was out in the same gale and experienced its effects; at one time she had considerable water in her hold. The schooner Mosquito, bound up was at Malden on Saturday, and she had lost her jibs and gaff-topsails. A passenger from the Milwaukee reports two or three vessels apparently stranded on Lake Michigan.

ASHORE.—The captain of the C. C. Bates reports seeing on Friday last, a large black fore-and-after ashore inside the point at Point aux Barques. He supposed her to be loaded with grain, but did not go very near her, as it was blowing fresh.—Detroit Tribune.

DISASTER AND LOSS OF LIFE.—Intelligence reached here last night that the sch. New Brunswick was lost in the gale last Thursday night, below Point Pelee, and that five of the crew were drowned. The captain, mate, and two of the crew were saved by clinging to a spar, and were finally rescued by a boat sent out from shore. The New Brunswick was an old and probably unseaworthy craft, and belonged in Henry Evans, of Cleveland, O. W. She was bound to one of the Lake Ontario ports.—Detroit Tribune Aug. 31.

☞ The gale of Thursday night proved more disastrous than was anticipated. Vessels on the north shore suffered more than those on the south. The sch. Lewis Cass, bound for this port from Sandusky, had her sails blown away, and she broached to, the sea making a clean breach over her decks. Fortunately her pumps kept her afloat. At one time she had three feet of water in her hold.

The schrs. Australia and Adriatic both suffered considerably in their sails and rigging.—Detroit Free Press.

The propeller Stockman was towed into port Saturday evening, by the tug B. L. Howard. She broke some portion of her machinery in the early part of Thursday night, and came near being lost.—Buffalo Express, Aug. 30.

PRINDABLE LOSS OF THE BARK CANADA.—We mentioned in our last issue that the bark Canada had capsized at sea, and was lying water-logged a short distance below this city. On Sunday, Capt. Prindeville, with his tug, the McQueen, made an attempt to relieve her, but was unsuccessful. She drifted past the city during the morning, and struck opposite the water-works, where she became fast, and it is reported that she is broken in two amidships. If this be the case the old Canada will probably have made her last voyage. Her cargo, consisting chiefly of flour, is being snugly stowed, and therefore not affected by the waves that continually break over it. The vessel was owned by R. A. Bruce, of this city, and was valued at about $6,000. She came out in 1854 as the "fleet and splendid steamer Canada," from the port of Chippewa, C. W., where she was built, and was for a time the crack craft on Lake Erie.

For some violation of the Revenue Laws she was seized, forfeited to her Canadian owners, and sold by the United States authorities, being bought in by a citizen of the United States. She ran several years in this manner, until then was dismantled, her hull becoming the good barque Canada.

The barque was generally a fortunate craft, and always a serviceable one, and she ended her career gallantly, having made four round trips to Buffalo this season, and at the time of her disaster having on board the cargo of nearly Half a mil ion of bush ls.

She has come to an honored and honorable end in coming to with her cargo, all of which will be saved, and involving in her own demise no loss of human life. Under our marine head the disaster is referred to more in detail.—Chig. Press & Tribune, 31st.
